2014 Professional Development Year End Report to the Board

Professional Development Objectives:

1. Increase knowledge among all NCEAFCS members of the opportunities for professional development through formal study, through workshops and seminars, and through distance learning opportunities.
2. Encourage exchange of research findings between districts and from state and national levels.
3. Encourage attendance at the NEAFCS meeting.

District vice presidents for professional development were contacted and reported the following:

A. Kelly Beasley from the Southeast District reported, Casey Stevens received a Masters Degree in Health Education and Promotion from East Carolina University. Meleah Collier completed New and Aspiring CED Leadership Development Training.

B. Sue Estridge from the West District reported Margie Mansure received a certificate of training in Childhood and Adolescent Weigh Management through the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Hannah Nicolas will be completing a Masters Degree in Health Science this summer from Western Carolina University.

C. Ann Simmons from the South Central District reported, Kristin Davis received her Masters Degree in Marriage and Family Therapy, Sarah Mammarella received a Graduate Certificate in Gerontology, Hayley Napier received a Graduate Certificate in Family Life and Parent Education, and Toi Degree received a Masters Degree in Agricultural Education

D. Deborah McGiffin from the North Central District did not have any agents reporting professional developmental achievements.

E. Robin Landsman from the Northeast District reported Jewel Winslow received a title promotion. Rachel Monteverdi received a Masters Degree from NC State in Family Life and Youth Development. She was also recertified in Leadership and Seven Habits of Highly Effective People.

Committee members will be working on updating the NCEAFCS Professional Development Handbook.
