ARTICLE I - NAME AND OBJECTIVES

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be the North Carolina Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (NCEAFCS), hereinafter referred to as the Association.

Section 2. NCEAFCS is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Section 3. In providing for a state professional association, the following objectives are:

A. Promote professional growth and development by:

1. Providing for and recognizing leadership and achievement.
2. Exchanging effective educational methodologies.
3. Awarding financial support for professional study and development.
4. Providing the formulation of policies to meet the goals of the organization.
5. Encourage members to conduct and present research, and use research-based information in programming.

Section 4. To further promote these objectives, there shall be District Associations of Family and Consumer Sciences in each of the districts. The District Associations shall have a minimum of two professional meetings per year. Additional meetings may be held at the discretion of members and officers. Districts should have By-Laws that are in line with State By-Laws.

Section 5. This Association shall be organized into districts, the same as the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service, and shall change according to any changes in the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service Districts within two years.

ARTICLE II - MEMBERSHIP

The Association is committed to the active involvement of all its members regardless of race, color, sex, age, national origin, religion, disability, veteran status or sexual preference. All members will be encouraged to participate in programs and activities and take leadership roles in the Association.

Section 1. Active Member

Any North Carolina Cooperative Extension employee holding a professional appointment who has a minimum of a bachelor's degree and who works in any capacity with Family and Consumer Sciences programming in counties, area, and/or state is eligible for membership and may become an active member of the Association upon payment of State and National annual dues.

Section 2. National Life Members

A. Any former Extension employee who has been a member of the National Association for at least 10 years will be granted life membership upon payment of a one-time fee to the National Association.

B. If a member retires during the membership year, after having paid active membership fees, their National life member status will not begin until the following year with payment of National Life Membership dues and the submission of the National Life Membership Application Form.

C. National Life members shall be granted the following rights and privileges. They may receive awards, fellowships and grants. They may serve on committees. They may serve as national voting delegates as selected by the National Executive Board. They shall not be eligible for office.

D. Payment of National membership dues does not include state and district membership.

Section 3. State Life Members

A. Any former Extension employee who has been a member of the State Association for at least 5 years, upon retirement or disability, will be granted State life membership upon payment of a one-time fee as described in Policies and Procedures.
